Four Queens Holiday Championships-(see full page tournament flyer)
December 12-14th, 1997

Normally we don't advertise national events in this newsletter but Mr Fred Gruenberg, the tournament organizer requested that I include it. I have attended 3 National Opens (87,90,92) that Mr. Gruenberg organized in Las Vegas, Nevada. All 3 tournaments were very well ran and I and my sons Mike and Matt had a great time. So if you are up for a fun chess tournament in December' 97, I am sure you would enjoy the Four Queens Holiday Championships.

1997 ND Quick Chess Championship – Grafton, ND 1997

1.d4 g6 2.e4 Bg7 3.Nf3 c6 4.Nc3 d5= 5.Be3 Bg4 6.Bd3 Qb6 7.Rb1 Bxf3 Allensworth is leading in the tournament by half a point. Hagen has to win to claim the championship and subsequently turns down a draw later in the game with his opponent with a significant but hardly decisive advantage. His courage is rewarded as Allensworth misplays badly and loses a pawn advantage. The White player could have also played conservatively for an insufficient losing chances claim as per sudden death rules but he didn't even consider such a strategy -- perhaps an unfortunate oversight for him. With the subsequent win Dale Hagen was the 1997 North Dakota Quick Chess Champion – G/29.
